FABRICA

BRIGHTON'S CENTRE FOR CONTEMPORARY ART

WHY FABRICA?

Fabrica is a unique venue for hire. An unusual and relaxed space in a fantastic central location, Fabrica combines unexpected delights with traditional characteristics, leaving you free to create your special day exactly as you imagine.

Our building is a former regency church in the heart of Brighton. First built in 1817, it is now deconsecrated and offers a great venue for wedding receptions, civil partnerships, and celebration parties.

As Brighton's centre for contemporary art, Fabrica has been presenting great exhibitions and events for over 21 years. By booking your wedding at Fabrica you'll not only get a chance to celebrate in the same space where Anish Kapoor and Brian Eno have exhibited acclaimed art works, but you will help to support and preserve one of the city's best-loved arts charities.

YOUR CANVAS

Although not registered for ceremonies, Fabrica offers a dramatic and unique interior for your party or reception that makes a statement in its own right and can be decorated to your own taste.

The space is open, with walls partly clad in wood and columns stretching from the floor to the overhead balcony. The room measures 12 x 23 metres with an impressive 10.5-metre ceiling height.

An experienced and dedicated event manager will be with you every step of the way, from initial viewing through to planning, setting up, during the party itself and the clearing up afterwards, to ensure that everything runs smoothly.

The space is flexible, fully licensed and can hold up to 130 people. You are free to decorate as you wish and organise your own catering, so you can make your event happen exactly as you imagine.

We've had End of the Pier, Alice in Wonderland and Christmas themes - what will yours be?
